

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

WA06: Wednesday 8:15 AM - 10:00 AM Panel

Computational Approaches to Intelligence Analysis

Chair Aaron B. Frank, George Mason University

Disc. Aaron B. Frank, George Mason University

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

An Empirical Testing of the 'Red Queen Hypothesis' and statistical forecasting of terrorism

Micah Dolcort-Silver, Josef Korbel School of International Studies, University of Denver

Multi-agent approaches to information operations: Evidence, contexts and a cognitive architecture

Armando Geller

Maciej M. Latek, George Mason University

Seyed M. M. Rizi, George Mason University

International Political Risk Assessments: Convergent Methods of Measuring Convergent Risks to Government and Business

Bruce Newsome, University of Pennsylvania

Frank Jr Plantan, University of Pennsylvania

Bridging Analytic Silos

Steven Bankes, BAE Systems

Aligning simulations of networks with experimental results

Elisa Bienenstock, Georgetown University

Opinion Change: Dynamic Computational Modeling of Uncertainty, Incompleteness, and Inconsistency

Eugene Santos, Dartmouth College

WA25: Wednesday 8:15 AM - 10:00 AM Panel

Intelligence Archives Worldwide: The Consequences of Wider

Access to Intelligence Records around the World

Chair John R. Ferris, University of Calgary

Disc. Michael Warner, US Department of Defense

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

Writing History Backwards? Epistemology, Archives and Signals Intelligence

Richard James Aldrich, University of Warwick

The Past is Prologue: Researching US Intelligence History in US Archives

Andrew Hammond, University of Warwick

The Opening of the State Security Archives of Central and Eastern Europe

John P. Maddrell, Loughborough University

Declassification as a tool in the development of intelligence studies in Spain: the Franco Archives

Gustavo Díaz Matey, Complutense University, Madrid

From Kew to Kansas: Researching British Intelligence History in American Archives

Christopher R. Moran, Warwick University

Dealing with the Secret Police Files in East-Central Europe: Intraregional Diffusion of the German Model

Dragos Petrescu, University of Bucharest

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

WB25: Wednesday 10:30 AM - 12:15 PM Panel

Intelligence Collection, Counterterrorism, and Counterinsurgency

Chair Philip H. J. Davies, Brunel University

Disc. Philip H. J. Davies, Brunel University

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

Managing Human Intelligence Sources - A better way

John Buckley, Middlesex University/SELF EMPLOYED

Coinistas versus New Wavers: The Debate on Counterinsurgency and Its Impact on Intelligence Support

Lawrence Cline

NYPD Intelligence: A Gold Standard, or a Tarnished Shield?

Erik Dahl, Naval Postgraduate School

It's About the Dots!

William J. Lahneman, Towson University

Developing U.S. Intelligence Capabilities for Population-centric Counterinsurgency and Stability Operations: Learning from Iraq and Afghanistan

Nathan F White, National Defense University

Open Source Intelligence Collection, Social Media, and Violent Extremism

James Breckenridge, Mercyhurst University

WC25: Wednesday 1:45 PM - 3:30 PM Panel

Escape the Anglosphere

Chair Richard James Aldrich, University of Warwick

Disc. Christopher R. Moran, Warwick University

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

Myths of radicalisation: Britain, Pakistan and ISI

Lewis Herrington, Warwick University

The "Great Game" revisited: Intelligence and Security Sector Reform in Central Asia

Davinia Hoggarth, University of Warwick

Politics, Paranoia and Intelligence in India

Paul Michael McGarr, University of Nottingham

Intelligence, drugs and the global south

Zakia Shiraz, University of Warwick

Latino: Identity, CIA and US Foreign Policy in Latin America in 1980s Hollywood Cinema

Simon David Willmetts, University of Warwick

Dragons and Tigers and Bears, Oh My: Chinese, Indian, and Russian Intelligence Cultures in Comparative Perspective

Matthew D. Crosston, Bellevue University

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

WD25: Wednesday 4:00 PM - 5:45 PM Panel

Intelligence, Cultures, and Conflict

Chair Timothy R. Walton, James Madison University

Disc. Frances Flannery, James Madison University

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

Israeli Intelligence and the Iranian Nuclear Weapons Program

Shlomo Shpiro, Bar-Ilan University

Comparative Analysis: Intelligence Doctrine and Global Terrorism

S.C. Zidek, Mercyhurst University

Mujahideen Warrior Culture: Examples from al Qaida and Taliban Narratives

Jessica Huckabey, Institute for Defense Analyses

Cultural Narrative for Analytic Tradecraft: Frameworks from the Humanities

Rhian T. McCoy, Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution, George Mason University

Lost in the Quagmire? The neglect of British Military Intelligence and Iraq

Jon Moran, University of Wolverhampton

Understanding Radical Apocalypticism

Timothy R. Walton, James Madison University

TA25: Thursday 8:15 AM - 10:00 AM Panel

Understanding and Uncovering State Secrets

Chair John H. Hedley, The Write Place, Inc.

Disc. Hayden B. Peake, CIA

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

The JIC through the Looking Glass: Illusions of Openness and the Study of British Intelligence

Rory Cormac, University of Warwick

Concepts, Constitutions and Concealment: Cultures of Intelligence and of Secrecy in the UK and USA

Philip H. J. Davies, Brunel University

Reconciling Democracy and the Protection of State Secrets: South Africa's Recent Experience

Stephane J. Lefebvre, Carleton University

The Ostracised Origins of Intelligence Studies

Jules Joseph Sebastian Robinson, Warwick University

Deep Secrecy and Historical Experience

Mark Stout, Johns Hopkins University

Between Antimilitarism and Bilateralism: Japan's Evolving National Security Secrecy System

Brad Williams, City University of Hong Kong

TB16: Thursday 10:30 AM - 12:15 PM Roundtable

Presidential Theme Roundtable—Gauging the Accuracy of Expert Political Judgment: Is Change Really Accelerating?

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

International Security Studies

Chair Phil Tetlock, University of Pennsylvania

Part. Jason Matheny, IARPA

Part. Richard K. Herrmann, Ohio State University

Part. George Gerliczy, US Government

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

TB25: Thursday 10:30 AM - 12:15 PM Panel

Intelligence Oversight and Control

Chair Mark Phythian, University of Leicester

Disc. Mark Phythian, University of Leicester

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

The President's Elephant: Assassination, Torture and the Evolution of the Threat Spectrum

Aaron F. Brantly, University of Georgia

Congressional Accountability and Media Coverage of an Intelligence Scandal or Failure

Loch K. Johnson, University of Georgia

"The role of external factors in intelligence control/ oversight in new democracies"

Cris Matei, Naval Postgraduate School

Congressional Oversight of the U.S. Intelligence Community Since 9/11: The More Things Change....

Kathleen McGinnis, Trinity Washington University

"Taking a Footnote" -- Budgetary Oversight of the IC and the role of OMB

Anne Daugherty Miles, National Intelligence University

Recent developments concerning intelligence oversight and accountability in Canada: theoretical or merely budgetary implications?

Stuart Farson, Simon Fraser University

TC25: Thursday 1:45 PM - 3:30 PM Panel

New Management Prisms for Intelligence Systems

Chair Jon Rosenwasser, US Office of the Director of National Intelligence

Disc. Jon Rosenwasser, US Office of the Director of National Intelligence

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

US Intelligence Community as a Complex Adaptive System

Aleksandra Maria Bielska, King's College London

Intelligence: Learning from Knowledge Management

Dalene Duvenage, 4Knowledge Analysis Solutions, South Africa

The Intelligence Community as a High Reliability Organization

Joe Faragone, University of Ottawa

The Intelligence Legoland: Building Better Models of the Intelligence Process

Arthur Steven Hulnick, Boston University

National Intelligence Managers: Steering a Course through Shoal Waters

Becky A. Roberts, National Intelligence University

Building better intelligence frameworks through effective governance.

Patrick F. Walsh, Charles Sturt University

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

TD25: Thursday 4:00 PM - 5:45 PM Panel

Intelligence, Dictatorship and Democracy: Does Regime Type Matter?

Chair Thomas C. Bruneau, Naval Postgraduate School

Disc. Thomas C. Bruneau, Naval Postgraduate School

Disc. Cris Matei, Naval Postgraduate School

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

The Conflict Between Intelligence and Democracy: The United States, United Kingdom & Israel A Challenge to and Refinement of the Conventional Wisdom

Bruce Gockerman, Author

Dean J Klovens, Triton College

The Intelligence Community in Portugal. A Troubled Evolution from Dictatorship to Democracy

Pedro B. Graça, ISCSP-UTL

From Enemy to Informant: the Sharing of Intelligence After the Arab Spring

Sarah-Myriam Martin-Brule, Bishop's University

Is There a Chinese Model of Intelligence?

Peter Mattis, Jamestown Foundation

Civic Education: The Overlooked Narrative of 9/11 Intelligence Community Reorganization

Glenn Hastedt, James Madison University

The Arab Spring and the Struggle for Power within Intelligence and Security Services: A Case Study of Egypt

Juha Pekka J. M. Makela, Finnish National Defense University

FA15: Friday 8:15 AM - 10:00 AM Panel

Intelligence and Foreign Policy: From Understanding to Action

Chair Spencer L. Willardson, University of Iowa

Disc. William J. Lahneman, Towson University

Sponsor(s): Foreign Policy Analysis

Intelligence Studies

American Diplomacy in Eastern Europe: What do the Wikileaks Cables Tell Us?

Ion Marandici, Rutgers University

Diffusion of Knowledge Representations in Intelligence Studies

Sorin-Gabriel Sebe, Bucharest University

Intelligence Crisis and its Causes

Barry H Steiner, California State University, Long Beach

Understanding Intelligence in Foreign Relations – How Intelligence Shapes Debate and Policy in States

Spencer L. Willardson, University of Iowa

The CIA's Drone Assassination Campaign in Afghanistan, Pakistan, Somalia and Yemen. An Overview.

Brian Glyn Williams, University of Massachusetts at Dartmouth

Grading Intelligence: The Use of Captured Records to Sharpen Analysis

Kevin M. Woods, Institute for Defense Analyses

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

FA25: Friday 8:15 AM - 10:00 AM Panel

Intelligence Education, Training and Research in the Black Sea Area

Chair Ion Grosu, Romanian Intelligence Service

Disc. Michael Andregg, University of St. Thomas

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

From Profession to Discipline: Balancing, Training and Research for the Development of Romanian Intelligence Studies

Cristian Barna, National Intelligence Academy

Democratic Transformation and Intelligence System Reform: Georgia's Decade Experience

David Bazghadze, GIS Training Center

Building an Intelligence Culture within the Agency and the Society as a Whole: the Case of Romania

Irena Dumitru, National Intelligence Academy

Intelligence Culture Evolution Through the Lens of a New Democracy

Alina Paun, Romanian Intelligence Service

Smart Intelligence: From Conservative Ethos to Intelligence Culture

Bogdan Prisecaru, National Intelligence Academy

FB25: Friday 10:30 AM - 12:15 PM Panel

Learning from Intelligence History

Chair Mark Stout, Johns Hopkins University

Disc. Mark Stout, Johns Hopkins University

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

Religion in the Intelligence Community during the Cold War

Melissa A. Graves, University of Mississippi

British Intelligence/Security Liaison: The Introduction And Development Of Middle Eastern Security Services

Chikara Hashimoto, Aberystwyth University

Looking for Meaning: Lessons from Mossad's failed adaptation to the post- Cold War era, 1991- 2011

Tamir Libel, University College Dublin

Strategic Intelligence Analysis and Policymaking in the US: Historical Perspectives

Stephen Marrin, Brunel University

The Historical Evolution of Apartheid Intelligence Services in South African, from 1969 to 1980

Kgoshi Mathabatha, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg

A Theoretical Explanation of US Intelligence Transformation and Reform, 1941-1953

Larry A. Valero, University of Texas at El Paso

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

FC25: Friday 1:45 PM - 3:30 PM Panel

Improving Intelligence Analysis

Chair Erik Dahl, Naval Postgraduate School

Disc. Erik Dahl, Naval Postgraduate School

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

Application of intelligence analysis techniques to the study of knowledge exchange networks: case-studies from California, Himalayan India and Tajikistan

Sally Daultrey

Re-imagining Intelligence Analysis: Restoring Art to the Profession

Daniel S. Gressang, US Department of Defense

Tracking the Spread of Structured Analytic Techniques: Trends and Traps

Randy Pherson, Pherson Associates

What Philosophy Can Do for Intelligence

Terry C. Quist, U.S. Army

The Analytical question: intelligence analysis, skills and professionalization in the post-Iraq period.

Julian J. Richards, University of Buckingham

Using Structured Analytic Techniques to Assess the Interrelationship between Warlordism and International Diffusion

Randy Pherson, Pherson Associates

Karen Saunders, Forum Foundation for Analytic Excellence

FC45: Friday 1:45 PM - 3:30 PM Panel

What is the Future of Weapons of Mass Destruction?

Chair Michael Andregg, University of St. Thomas

Disc. Arthur Steven Hulnick, Boston University

Disc. Loch K. Johnson, University of Georgia

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

International Security Studies

Trends in Chemical Weapons Development and Application

Stefan Brem, Federal Office for Civil Protection

After Proliferation: Deterrence Theory and Emerging Nuclear Powers

Joshua Rovner, U.S. Naval War College

Forecasting Bioweapons Threats

Kathleen M. Vogel, Cornell University

Organizing the U.S. Military for Conflict in Cyberspace

Michael Warner, US Department of Defense

Asia's Nuclear Future

Karen J. Winzowski, National University of Singapore

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

FD25: Friday 4:00 PM - 5:45 PM Panel

Building Active Learning into Intelligence Studies

Chair Stephen Marrin, Brunel University

Disc. Stephen Marrin, Brunel University

Sponsor(s): Active Learning in International Affairs; Intelligence Studies

Simulations in intelligence: experience-based learning and testing in intelligence analysis and production

Ruben Arcos, Rey Juan Carlos University

Indicators: a rigorous and adaptive tool for addressing diffusion

Mary C. Boardman, Globlaytica, LLC

Randy Pherson, Pherson Associates

Professionalizing Intelligence Studies: Begin with the Educators

Commander Toni N. Gay, U.S. Coast Guard Academy Intelligence

The Future of Intelligence Education: "PIE" in the Sky?

Anne Daugherty Miles, National Intelligence University

Lessons Learned From Intelligence Internships with Three Midwest Universities

Chris Quillen, Advanced Technical Intelligence Center (ATIC)

Ivory Tower or Mean Streets? The Role of Professional Experience in Faculty Qualifications for Intelligence Studies Courses and Programs.

Jonathan C Smith, Coastal Carolina University

SB25: Saturday 10:30 AM - 12:15 PM Panel

Beyond Big Data: New Approaches to Social Media for Intelligence Analysis

Chair Sarah Miller Beebe, George Mason University/Ascendant Analytics

Disc. Stephen Marrin, Brunel University

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

#intelligence

Carl Miller, King's College London

Social Media Indicators of Instability in Bahrain: Looking Backward, Looking Forward

Flannery O Becker, DGI

Social Media Indicators of Russian Political Activism

George S. Beebe, Center for Intelligence Research and Analysis

Beyond Big Data & Buzz Metrics: Developing Targeted Analytic Frameworks for Social Media Analysis

Sarah Miller Beebe, George Mason University/Ascendant Analytics

Looking Where They Aren't: Censorship Trends in Iran as Indicators of Political Dynamics

Alexander Guittard, Defense Group Inc.

The Use of Social Media for Analysis of Hacking Communities

Raymond E. Sontag, St. Antony's College, University of Oxford

Intelligence Studies Section Panels at ISA 2013

3-6 April 2013 in San Francisco, California

Full program: http://isanet.catnet.arizona.edu/MyISA/Files/SanFrancisco2013_Program.pdf

Information current as of 23 Sept 2012

SC25: Saturday 1:45 PM - 3:30 PM Panel

Threat Perception and the Diffusion of Risk Analysis and Intelligence

Chair David Strachan-Morris, University of Leicester

Disc. Julian J. Richards, University of Buckingham

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

National Risk Assessment as Intelligence Support

Stefan Brem, Federal Office for Civil Protection

Individual Threat Perception and Small Group Decision-Making in Crisis Situations

Anna Daun, University of Cologne

Thomas Jaeger, University of Cologne

Risk as a Framework for a Constructivist Approach to Intelligence Studies

Mark Phythian, University of Leicester

Intelligence and Risk Assessment in the Fifth Domain of Conflict and Warfare: You are on Your Own

Thomas A Quiggin, Carleton University

The Need for Public Private Partnerships for Risk Identification and Mitigation Strategies for National Critical Infrastructures: The Example of National Transmission System Operation

Doron Zimmermann

Into the Unknown: Risk Assessment in the British Government's Iraq War Decision

David Strachan-Morris, University of Leicester

SD25: Saturday 4:00 PM - 5:45 PM Panel

Global Cities and Global Slums

Chair John P. Sullivan, Los Angeles Sheriff's Department

Chair Robert J. Bunker, Counter Threat Training Group

Disc. Nils Gilman, Monitor 360

Sponsor(s): Intelligence Studies

The Potential Implications of the Black (Beyond Feral; Criminal City) Ferality Level for the Westphalian State

Robert J. Bunker, Counter Threat Training Group

Censuses and Biometric Identification in Slum Stabilization and Security

Alex Calvo, European University (Barcelona)

Power and Underworld Alliances: A Comparative Analysis of Cooperation and Conflict among Drug Cartels

Irina A. Chindea, Fletcher School, Tufts University

Deception in Urban Operations: Intelligence Frontiers

Adam Elkus, Georgetown University

Monterrey Slums, Inter-Cartel Conflict and the Rise of a City- State?

Nathan Jones, University of California at Irvine

The Tet Offensive, the Media, and War

James J. Wirtz, Naval Postgraduate School